

Inspiration for Seeing Beyond Our Differences

How To talk to Opposing Sides: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=etIqIn7vT4w>

Build Momentum for Election Season:

1. Mobilize.us

Find events, petitions, volunteer opportunities, and fundraisers in your local area, organized by charities, campaigns...

<https://www.mobilize.us/events/get-out-the-vote/>

2. Vote.org

Check your registration, register to vote, vote by mail, get election reminders, pledge to vote, etc.

<https://www.vote.org/>

3. Field Team 6

Join the revolution! FieldTeam6's strategy is to "meet people where they are via phone, text, postcard, social media, and soon at in-person, Covid-safe voter drives. Armed with Voterizer.org, the only custom-built app just for registering Democrats, we track down every good-hearted eligible voter we can, and get them on the voter rolls where they belong. And sign them up to vote from home!"

<https://www.fieldteam6.org/>

4. Vote Save America

VoteSaveAmerica.org to find out what political races across the country need your help.

<https://votesaveamerica.com/>

5. Work the Polls

Election workers are essential to ensuring that elections are a success. Become a poll worker and help your community practice the right to vote.

<https://www.eac.gov/voters/become-poll-worker>

6. Galvenize Action

At Galvenize Action, they "identify, engage, and move moderate women in rural, small town, and suburban America to reliably vote for progress."

<https://www.galvanizeaction.org/>

Women's Rights Campaigns and Groups

7. Joanna Pena Bickley: Ni Una Menos (Not One Woman Less)

“#NiUnaMenos (#NotOneWomanLess) is a feminist movement that began in Argentina and quickly spread to the rest of Latin America. Today, it has become the rally cry shared by American women fighting for their rights to privacy, healthcare and a legal abortion.” The campaign site includes downloadable posters and resources to share online and in your community to promote activism for female health rights.

<https://joannapenabickley.com/project/ni-una-menos>

8. “She Has Something to Say”

The facebook group is known for sharing Inspiring talks, speeches, profiles, & words from women thought leaders around the world. Creating support and mentoring opportunities to create growth and awareness for programs, business, & organizations that champion women.

<https://www.facebook.com/SHEhassomethingtosayLISTEN/>

Supreme Court Cases

9. The Pink House at the Center of the World

Article description: “The Supreme Court case that overturned Roe v. Wade began with a lawsuit filed by a Mississippi abortion clinic. On the day Roe was overturned, we were there. Stories from the center of this moment of history, the day it happened.”

<https://www.thisamericanlife.org/774/the-pink-house-at-the-center-of-the-world>

10. Harvard Admissions Case

A politically motivated lawsuit brought by Edward Blum and the organization he created, Students for Fair Admissions (SFFA), wants to remove the consideration of race in college and university admissions.

<https://www.harvard.edu/admissionscase/>

Www.heresuite.com

Info@heresuite.com